Campus Rhythm

With Johnny Downs, Gale Storm, Robert Lowery, Claudia Drake. A missing singing star, known as the Crunchy-Wunchy Thrush, turns up as a student at college, who pinch hits in the college musical show contest. The hucksters, never missing a trick, descend on the campus like a bunch of locusts and recapture their missing Thrush.

Running Time—63 Minutes

"Cosmo Jones" in The Crime Smasher

With Edgar Kennedy, Richard Cromwell, Gale Storm, Mantan Moreland, Frank Graham as "Cosmo Jones." The delightfully dippy detective of radio fame, comes to the screen to completely baffle the police with his clever, correspondence-school detection. Regardless of what they think of him, Cosmo Jones goes his daffy way, solving crimes and apprehending criminals.

Running Time—62 Minutes

Follow the Leader

With The East Side Kids, Joan Marsh, Jack La Rue. The East Side Kids are grown up and Muggs and Glimpy clean cut soldiers. Home on furlough, they run into some shenanigans for which one of the gang has been unjustly accused. Valuable medical supplies are the crux of the matter; and The East Side Kids with their usual aggressiveness and vigor, make for an exciting comedy.

Running Time—64 Minutes

Ghosts on the Loose

With The East Side Kids, Ava Gardner, Bela Lugosi, Rick Vallin. A cottage bought for a wedding gift, an enemy agent, an illegal printing press and a secret passage, are enough to make things complicated, but add The East Side Kids to the formula and things really go haywire for an hilarious comedy.

Running Time—65 Minutes

Here Comes Kelly

With Eddie Quillan, Joan Woodbury, Maxie Rosenbloom, Armida, Ian Keith. Quick tempered, irrepressible Jimmy Kelly can't hold a job for more than two months at a time, but becoming a process server is just up his alley, as it leads him into a succession of riotous experiences that will keep you in stitches.

Running Time—64 Minutes

Isle of Missing Men

With John Howard, Helen Gilbert, Gilbert Roland, Alan Mowbray. Coming to a remote penal colony of men proved to be a dangerous and desperate journey to a woman, trying to help her husband escape. She accomplished her mission only to see him killed just as freedom was in sight. Here is a tense, action filled, emotional drama.

Running Time—67 Minutes

Million Dollar Kid

With The East Side Kids, Noah Beery, Iris Adrian. Led by that fearsome foursome, The East Side Kids, the gang crosses the other side of the tracks to get themselves into a predicament, out of which only the lucky could extricate themselves. The Kids, however, do a good turn to an indulgent millionaire father and are repaid with a peck of titillating trouble.

Running Time—65 Minutes

Mr. Muggs Steps Out

With The East Side Kids, Joan Marsh, Noah Beery. America's favorite rascals, The East Side Kids, cook up a mess of complications, which only they themselves could untangle. Muggs McGinnis (Leo Gorcey) is the spark-plug for apprehending jewelry thieves and kidnappers, all mixed up in an hilarious pot pourri of fun and entertainment.

Running Time—64 Minutes

Melody Parade

With Mary Beth Hughes, Eddie Quillan, Tim and Irene, Mantan Moreland, Armida, Anson Weeks and his Orchestra plus Ted Fio Rito and his Orchestra. The show always goes on. Sometimes they succeed and sometimes they don't. This show can't help clicking with a roster of revue entertainment, which is a lavish melange of songs, dances, and fun for all.

Running Time—73 Minutes

The Mystery of the 13th Guest

With Helen Parrish, Dick Purcell, Tim Ryan, Frank Faylan. Thirteen years after the death of a man, thirteen guests, all members of the family, gather in a musty old house, to hear a reading of his will by his granddaughter. Unexplained murders and eerie events take place before the authorities uncover the murderer and the motive.

Running Time—61 Minutes

Nearly Eighteen

With Gale Storm, Bill Henry, Rick Vallin, Luis Alberni. Eighteen is the legal age for a person to be independent of parental responsibility. But what happens when a person with a great deal of talent has a chance to launch a singing career and is just "nearly eighteen"? What happens to the charming Gale Storm are a lot of complications and teen age problems all of which are resolved happily when her 18th birthday comes around. In the meantime there is fun and frolic.

Running Time—61 Minutes

No Escape

With Dean Jagger, John Carradine, Mary Brian, Billy Henry, Sidney Blackmer, Ian Keith. The ever vigilant FBI pits its well organized wits against a ruthless and cunning gang of counterfeiters and saboteurs. An unwilling member of the gang reveals the inner secrets of its activities, but not before you've witnessed a drama in which there was no escape for one man.

Running Time—75 Minutes

Prison Mutiny

With Edward Norris, Joan Woodbury, Jack La Rue. A prison is a tough, realistic world and it takes a man of great courage, unjustly imprisoned, to work out his life under such circumstances. Justice hammered on an anvil of truth ultimately finds its way.

Running Time—61 Minutes

Rhythm Parade

With N. T. G. (Nils T. Granlund) and the Florentine Gardens Revue, Gale Storm, Robert Lowery, Cliff Nazarro, The Mills Brothers, Ted Fio Rito and his Orchestra. Music, fun and laughter all wound together in a story plot of a singer trying to make a Broadway show. Adding confusion to confusion there is the cutest little eight month baby named Sparkie, who is the object of affection and the clue to a misunderstanding. The night club background affords a welter of song-spangled entertainment.

Running Time—70 Minutes

Revenge of the Zombies

With John Carradine, Robert Lowery, Gale Storm, Veda Ann Borg, Mantan Moreland. Transgressing the world of the dead is dangerous business and this story performs the difficult deed in a fascinating manner. An unscrupulous physician has accomplished the impossible by bringing the dead back to the half-world between life and death, subject to his will alone. Retribution for this unnatural phenomenon is finally his, as his own creation drags him to his doom.

Running Time—61 Minutes

Smart Guy

With Rick Vallin, Veda Ann Borg, Bobby Larson, Wanda McKay, Jack La Rue. Sometimes a press agent's client gets to believe in his own ballyhoo and becomes what his publicity says he is. In this case it's a gambler, charged with manslaughter, who pays his penalty, but gains the love and affection of a newsboy whom he adopts for publicity sake, but learns to love for his own sake. It's a heartwarming, humanitarian story.

Running Time—64 Minutes

Silent Witness

With Frank Albertson, Evelyn Brent, Jack Mulhall, Ace (Shepherd Dog). Ruthless racketeers know only the law of the gun and woe to him who betrays them. Their audacity reached even the District Attorney, whose life they took. It was a silent witness, however, who eventually brought them to justice. Ace, the faithful dog of the D.A., who remembered his master's murderers, forced a confession.

Running Time—62 Minutes

Silver Skates

With Kenny Baker, Belita, Irene Dare, Ted Fio Rito and Orchestra. A sparkling spectacle of scintillating skaters, is this motion picture ice show. Leading them all is Belita, queen of the ice world; golden voiced Kenny Baker; glamorous Patricia Morison; Frick and Frack, world famous skating clowns; Eugene Turner, U. S. Figure Skating Champion; Irene Dare, amazing darling of the rink. Built around an entertaining and clean cut story, this film is really a dainty dish of skates and song.

Running Time—75 Minutes

Spy Train

With Richard Travis, Catherine Craig, Chick Chandler, Evelyn Brent. With danger as the destination, the whole action of this thriller takes place on a train. A beautiful girl innocently involved in the machinations of a spy ring, and a news correspondent, with his photographer, break up what might have led to serious repercussions.

Running Time—61 Minutes

Sarong Girl

With Ann Corio, Tim and Irene Ryan, Mantan Moreland, Bill Henry, Johnny "Scat" Davis. A show-girl bombshell hits the screen in a riotous musical romance. With two men on her mind and one of the nation's top swing bands to keep her stepping the result is film fun at its best.

Running Time—63 Minutes

The Unknown Guest

With Victor Jory, Pamela Blake, Veda Ann Borg, Harvey Hayden. Designed with all the mastery of an Edgar Allen Poe story, this picture maintains its suspense to the very last moment, ending in a surprise twist. The occupancy of a vacated hunting lodge by a strange man, leads to suspicion of him as a possible murderer. A lovely girl is fascinated by him as an unknown horror almost overtakes her. Suspense is supreme.

Running Time—64 Minutes

Wings Over the Pacific

With Inez Cooper, Edward Norris, Montague Love, Robert Armstrong. In an idyllic setting on a South Sea Island, there is a desperate struggle between two fliers, both of whom have crashed. Not only do they fight for the only white girl on the island, but they contend for control of the island for their governments in a high tension drama.

Running Time—60 Minutes

Dawn on the Great Divide

(Based on a James Oliver Curwood story) with Buck Jones, Rex Bell, Raymond Hatton, Mona Barrie. Bringing the railroad to the west brought with it a struggle between outlaws, who preferred the frontier wide open, and those who came with the roads bringing with them law and order. A saga of our early American history.

Running Time—70 Minutes

A Series of Three

TRAIL BLAZERS

with

KEN MAYNARD and HOOT GIBSON

Running Time—Approx. 60 Minutes

Wild Horse Stampede

With Ken Maynard, Hoot Gibson, Betty Miles, Ian Keith. Two of the greatest cowboys of all time are teamed up in a rousing, rough riding western, in which the recovery of a herd of army horses is the central theme. Not only are the horses found, but the outlaws are tracked to their lair and wiped out in a bursting gun battle.

The Law Rides Again

With Ken Maynard, Hoot Gibson, Jack La Rue, Betty Miles. The Trail Blazers, Ken Maynard and Hoot Gibson really run into a tough one. Indians on the warpath, attack a stage, while an outlaw used as a decoy, doublecrosses the cowboys, only to lead them again to the root of the Indian trouble. The U. S. Cavalry climax a rip roaring fight between the law and the bandits.

Blazing Guns

With Ken Maynard, Hoot Gibson. A lawless town which wasn't big enough for two previous U. S. Marshals, proves to be no match for those two trigger pals, Ken Maynard and Hoot Gibson. Not only do they outwit the outlaws, but they make some of the gang turn their guns on their former cohorts in a smashing gun battle.

A Series of Four Musical Westerns

RANGE BUSTERS

with

JOHN (Dusty) KING
DAVID (Davy) SHARPE
MAX (Alibi) TERHUNE

Running Time—Approx. 60 Minutes

Texas to Bataan

With John (Dusty) King, David (Davy) Sharpe, Max (Alibi) Terhune, Marjorie Manning. A special mission takes the Range Busters off home ground and to the Philippines todeliver 400 head of horses. But they don't lack for hard-riding, hard action thrills, with the highlight a terrific fight with a Bolo-knife-wielding enemy. For the lighter moments there are some highly delectable songs of the West, a ventriloquist and daredevil Davy Sharpe.

Trail Riders

With John (Dusty) King, David Sharpe, Max (Alibi) Terhune, Kermit Maynard. With typical Range Buster dispatch, the gang busting trio are on the trail once again as they bring to justice outlaws, respectable and otherwise, in a blaze of terrific action and excitement.

Two Fisted Justice

With John (Dusty) King, David Sharpe, Max (Alibi) Terhune. The swashbuckling trio of Range Busters are sent to Dry Gulch to clean out a nest of thieves and this time Alibi's ventriloquism is more than just entertainment. The bandits are "gun crazy" but are wiped out in two fisted style.

Haunted Ranch

With John (Dusty) King, David Sharpe, Max (Alibi) Terhune, Rex Lease. Tracking down a bandit is tough enough, but when it's his ghost that has to be caught, the Range Busters are really stumped. It turns out however, that a song played on an organ, proves to be the clue to hoard of gold stolen from the U. S. mint.

A Series of Six

U. S. MARSHALS

with

JOHNNY MACK BROWN

RAYMOND HATTON

Running Time—Approx. 60 Minutes

The Stranger from Pecos

With Johnny Mack Brown, Raymond Hatton, Kirby Grant, Christine McIntyre. A gang of thieves, including a ruthless sheriff and a town's banker, against a pair of U. S. Marshals creates a desperate situation. But the Marshals know how to handle outlaws and they wind up a rousing, riotous battle the right way.

The Ghost Rider

With Johnny Mack Brown, Raymond Hatton, Beverly Boyd. Out for revenge, the Ghost Rider has his own way of handling outlaws, only to find that he has an ally in an undercover U. S. Marshal. Together they really do a job and break up a nest of gangsters who are on the verge of taking over the whole town. For action and hard hitting western entertainment, ride along with the "Ghost Rider."

Six Gun Gospel

With Johnny Mack Brown, Raymond Hatton, Iona Gest. Under the guise of travelling preachers, the U. S. Marshals this time are able to track down a murderous gang of gold hijackers. Thrill packed with rough riding action.

Outlaws of Stampede Pass

With Johnny Mack Brown, Raymond Hatton, Ellen Hall, Charles King. This thrill crammed western is focused around a gang who resort to "fixed" card games and cattle rustling. But our trusty pair of U. S. Marshals take a hand in matters and wind up a situation in a whirlwind finish.

The Texas Kid

With Johnny Mack Brown, Raymond Hatton, Kermit Maynard. Stagecoach riders, a juicy payrool and an adventurous character known as the "Texas Kid" are involved in a galloping gamut of western gun play. For the addicts of "hoss opry" this is a good bill of fare.

Raiders of the Border

With Johnny Mack Brown, Raymond Hatton, Craig Woods. Jewels and cattle are a far cry from each other, but they have a definite link in the illegal traffic across the Mexican border —the cattle into Mexico and the jewels into the U. S. How the puzzle is solved makes tip top entertainment.

The Kid from Kansas

Stars Dick Foran, Leo Carrillo and Andy Devine.

A hurricane hombre from Kansas sweeps into the tropics on the trail of terrorists. A cyclone of sledge-fisted action.

Running Time—60 Minutes

Stars Kirby Grant, Fuzzy Knight, Harriet Hilliard, Eddie Quillan, Ozzie Nelson, Jack Teagarden and Orchestras.

Introducing the great hit song
"PAPER DOLL"

A laugh-provoking and tuneful musical with great comedy situations in and around a movie studio and a radio station.

Running Time—60 Minutes

Raiders of the Dessert

Stars Maria Montez, Richard Arlen, Andy Devine and Turhan Bey.

Excitement, comedy and breath-taking suspense combine to provide a full measure of fast-moving entertainment in an Arabian setting when two Yankees lead the defense of a city attacked by warrior tribes.

Running Time—60 Minutes

March of the Wooden Soldiers

The combination of Laurel and Hardy's rollicking comedy with pulsating music, fantastic sets and superb singing, makes a picture that can be enjoyed by anybody. In this feature, Laurel and Hardy again don costumes that differ from their orthodox baggy suits and derbies. They are two apprentice toymakers, who in their sincere but wild attempts to get the Widow Peep, who lived in "The Shoe," and her daughter, Bo Peep, out of the clutches of Toyland's villian, Barnaby, involve themselves in a series of hilarious events that at times turns the operetta into a screamingly funny comedy.

Cast

Stanley Dum	Stan Laurel
Oliver Dee	Oliver Hardy
Bo-Peep	Charlotte Henry
Tom-Tom	Felix Knight
Barnaby	Henry Kleinbach
Widow Peep	Florence Roberts
Santa Claus	Ferdinand Munier
Toymaker	William Burress

Adventures of Chico

The "Adventures of Chico" is a tender and beautiful picture. It is the story of a lonely Mexican boy named Chico and his animal friends. His favorite animal friend is a little Paisano bird. One day Chico lies down for a short siesta. As he sleeps, a six-foot diamond back rattler and its mate approach. The little eight-ounce bird bravely goes forth to fight the deadly snakes. So furious is the little bird's attack that the smaller rattler retreats, but the six-foot serpent coils for battle. The little bird accepts the challenge. He claws, lunges and feints and finally the snake lies dead at his feet. A most unusual film, humane, appealing and sympathetic.

Duncan Mayor of Crockett, opposes the appointment of Evelyn Venable, a Boston Girl, as a teacher in Crocket, but she wins the support of the cowboys headed by Boyd, Hayes and Hayden.

Duncan, who is really the head of a gang of cattle thieves, changes in his attitude toward Evelyn and asks her to marry him. She is about to leave with Duncan to be married, when one of the henchmen, feeling he is being "double crossed" in a deal fires on him. The shots go wild, but Evelyn realizes Duncan is the man sought by Boyd as a cattle thief. Boyd and his men capture Duncan, and Evelyn leaves for Boston, happy that she has learned of Duncan's guilt in time and that Boyd is her steadfast friend.

74 Minutes—RENTAL—$4.50

Copacabana

Stars Groucho Marx, Carmen Miranda, Andy Russell, Steve Cochran and Gloria Jean.

A comedy packed musical extravaganza set at the lavish New York night spot, The Copacabana Club. The bombastic comedy team of Groucho and Carmen and the romantic complications of Steve Cochran and Gloria Jean provides solid entertainment.

Running Time—90 Minutes

Second Chorus

Fred Astaire, Paulette Goddard, Burgess Meredith, Artie Shaw and Charles Butterworth.

A college musical full of youth, tunes, comedy and dancing at its best. Fred and Burgess are perennial seniors at college where they do quite well financially with their band. Their troubles begin when they are graduated by a fluke and get further complicated when they both love the same girl.

Running Time—90 Minutes

Sensations

Eleanor Powell, Dennis O'Keefe, W. C. Fields, Sophie Tucker, Woody Herman and Cab Calloway and their bands. A lavishly produced musical revue that outdoes most productions in pulchritude, music, dancing, settings costumes and comedy. The inner workings of a talent agency serves as a backdrop for a number of excellent star acts such as "Circus in the Sky", "Old Plantation", "Gay Nineties Night" and others.

Running Time—90 Minutes

Hi Diddle Diddle

Martha Scott, Dennis O'Keefe, June Havoc, Adolph Menjou, and Billie Burke. A hilarious comedy with music, both popular and operatic is presented by a scintillating cast in a picture peppered with smart dialogue, gay songs, and a "gaga" romance. Sailor Dennis O'Keefe is late for his own wedding when his ship arrives late. But that's only the beginning of a comedy of errors that doesn't let up until the end title, and even then leaves the audience with a chuckle.

Running Time—90 Minutes

Knickerbocker Holiday

Starring Nelson Eddy, Charles Coburn, Constance Dowling with Johnny (Scat) Davis, Otto Kruger and Carmen Amaya and her company.

It's the happiest holiday in years. There's music and dancing, laughter and song. . . . Set to the wild and woosome rhythms of little old, lovin' old New York.

Running Time—90 Minutes

Her Favorite Patient

John Carroll, Ruth Hussey, Charlie Ruggles, Ann Rutherford star in this hilarious comedy about the private life of a woman doctor. There's lots of good comedy in this situation; a woman physician trying to maintain her professional attitude while treating a handsome test pilot with "charming bedside manners."

Running Time—90 Minutes

Strange Voyage

With Eddie Albert, Ray Teal, Matt Willis, Elena Verdugo.—Photographed along the coast of Southern California and in the Mexican desert, this story of exciting adventure has an air of reality seldom achieved. Seeking a treasure buried in the Mexican desert by a 16th Century Monk, an expedition sets out and sails down the coast of Lower California. Combatting strange adventures including fighting sharks under water, our treasure hunters survive deadly thirst and heat in the desert, and discover the treasure, only to lose it in a sandstorm. Add the greed and jealousies of men and you have all the elements of a thrilling drama in a setting only Nature herself could provide. Running Time—61 Minutes

Alaska

With Kent Taylor, Margaret Lindsay, John Carradine, Dean Jagger.—Based upon Jack London's story, "Flush of Gold," this picture provides a strong drama, with music, about the Alaska Gold Rush days. In outdoor snow and mountain settings, the story is given reality and vitality. Claim jumping and murder are equally serious in the eyes of frontier-law and both are motives for one of the author's best tales. An Alaskan gold mining town becomes the crossroads for a conglomeration of people, all seeking quick riches. The conflict is natural and violent, but it makes for a robust story, high in entertainment value.

Running Time—76 Minutes

The Great Mike

(Black and White)

The Great Mike is a sterling melodrama of a boy, a dog, and a horse, starring Stu Erwin and with the following supporting cast: Robert (Buzzy) Henry, Carl (Alfalfa) Switzer, Pierre Watkin, Gwen-Kenyon, and Marian Martin.

The theme of the story, unless one is aware of the History of the Race Track, will seem far-fetched, but, as a matter of positive fact, there are many counterparts in racing annals which are not dissimilar to the theme of The Great Mike.

RENTAL—$12.50

Danny Boy

(Black and White)

With Robert "Buzzy" Henry, star of "The Great Mike," and Ralph Lewis, Sybil Merritt, Helen Brown. This is the story of a boy and his dog and the heroism that proves again that "a man's best friend is his dog."

RENTAL—$12.50

The Enchanted Forest

(Cine-Color)

The story concerns five people who come to the "Enchanted Forest," each in search of the answer to his individual need: Old John, the Hermit, has lived there for years and has found in its deep woods the contentment and peace that escaped him in the outside world. Ed Henderson, a lumber king, brings the men with axes to chop down the forest for the wealth of its timber. The trees are felled and rain storms cause a flood. Henderson's infant grandson is carried off in the swollen mountain stream. Henderson's daughter, Anne, cannot accept the idea that her baby is lost for ever. Several years pass and Henderson, Annie and a young doctor come to the forest, hoping to cure her and her hopeless dream that her baby still lives. The eventual reunion of the mother and the child who has grown to be a stalwart five-year-old under the kindly guidance of old John and his animal friends, brings the poignant drama to its happy conclusion.

The cast includes Edmund Lowe, Brenda Joyce, Billy Severan, Harry Davenport, John Litel, Clancy Cooper and "Blackie" Jim, the crow.

How a Bill Becomes a Law

A fact film on the functions of our Congress

Laws, as created by our legislative body, administered by our executive body and applied by our judicial, are part of each citizen's life. How many of us, however, know exactly HOW a law is made. Where does it originate, through what procedures does it go, who and what makes it a "LAW OF THE LAND"? Each step is sharply defined, illustrated and visualized. All possible ways of creating new laws are demonstrated. For students in civics, government and citizenship, this new film is a MUST for a complete understanding of the functions of our Congress.

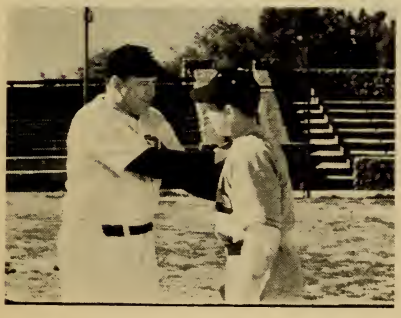
20 Minutes RENTAL $2.50

The People's Charter

This is a film made entirely of authentic documentary material which shows how, in the midst of war, the idea of the United Nations was born. It goes on to show how the United Nations was organized at San Francisco. The film reaches its climax at the first meeting of the United Nations Assembly in London. The film throughout stresses the relationship of the United Nations to the people of the world. It shows the part they played in shaping the organization and points out clearly the part the people of every country must play to make sure that its great purpose of world peace and security is achieved.

17 Minutes RENTAL $2.50

★ BASEBALL ★



Play Ball, Son

Excellent baseball training film based on a book by Bert V. Dunn. Joe Cronin, manager of the Boston Red Sox, introduces this film, which shows a group of 14-year-old boys demonstrating Dunne's teachings. Covers correct play at all positions with special emphasis on the principles of hitting and pitching.

Expanding World Relationship

10 Minutes COLOR RENTAL $2.00

A study of the effects of Science and Technology upon expanding relationships between peoples in all parts of the world.

The River

32 Minutes—RENTAL $3.00

A dramatic documentary film of the Mississippi River . . . what it has done, and what man has done to it. A persuasive indictment of our practices of the past and what we should do in the future if we are to avoid soil and lumber losses and the disastrous effects of floods.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

The House I Live In

Frank Sinatra stars in a dramatic appeal for tolerance. In this Academy Award winner, Sinatra impresses a group of boys with the real meaning of democracy for all. A grand picture for all to see.

New Frontiers of Medicine

17 Minutes

Keeping vigil over the health of his community, the family doctor is a man on whose broad medical knowledge most citizens must rely.

On all fronts the specialist and research scientist and the family doctor are together gaining ground in their unremitting war against disease, in order that men may live.

Men of Medicine

17 Minutes

This film gives a glimpse of wartime scientific strides and follows a young physician through some of the problems facing doctors today.

With about 10 years training behind him (costing approximately $15,000), the "new doctor" must successfully meet the needs of his community and win its respect.

The American Teacher

15 Minutes

All good teachers know that their methods are as individualistic and personal as any other artist's, and all realize the importance of developing in their pupils the ability to think as well as a knowledge of the facts. This is the theme of The American Teacher.

Music In America

17 Minutes

Music In America features such outstanding musical personalities as singer Marian Anderson, Composer George Gershwin, Violinist Mischa Elman, Bandsman Benny Goodman, Conductor Serge Koussevitsky and others.

Careers for Girls

17 Minutes

In the high schools, private schools and colleges of the United States today, there are approximately four million girls who will be going out within the next four years to make careers for themselves. "Careers for Girls" is a vocational exploration film, designed to make these girls aware of the many types of jobs that are today open to women. It is no long necessary for a girl to be limited to the more obvious vocations or for her to take the first job that comes along. By studying these careers, by accurate self-analysis of interests and abilities and by relating them to a job, a girl is able to concentrate on preparing herself for the vocation to which she is best suited.

Transportation in the U. S.

17 Minutes

Of all the machines which man has invented and developed, none have more deeply influenced the progress of civilization than the means he devised to get him from place to place. In the United States, the vast land areas which stretch almost three thousand miles across the country were opened up for settlement principally through transportation.

Life With Baby

18 Minutes

Many of the findings of the Yale Clinic are graphically illustrated in Life With Baby, which features candid camera sequences photographed through a one-way vision dome.

Americans All

16 Minutes

The March of Time Forum Edition offers a gripping and objective presentation of an issue which concerns every American. The film further shows how a forward-looking city like Springfield, Mass., offers an inspiring plan to other communities for combatting prejudices — shows how your school and your town can deal with the causes of this injustice.

Atomic Power

19 Minutes

The film takes you to those early beginnings and unfolds for you the story of atomic power. It not only gives you the facts and figures but in each of the re-enacted scenes you will find the actual scientists who performed the original experiments: Lise Meitner, Enrico Fermi, Albert Einstein, and others of equal importance.

The F. B. I.

19 Minutes

How law entorcement has become an exacting science is depicted in this absorbing film study. Also re-enacted is the authentic case of August Baumeyer, a portrayal of the F.B.I. in action.

Modern Surgery

18 Minutes

The magnificent resources and techniques of the modern hospital, the precise competence of modern anesthetists, and the amazing skill of modern surgeons, all based on the highest traditions of medicine, form the basis of this timely and dramatic March of Time Forum Film.

Marriage and Divorce

15 Minutes

The March of Time frankly surveys the problem of broken homes and offers the opinions of many experts as to what should be done. For marriage and the founding of a family hold out today, as they always have, a greater promise of self-realization than any other course in life.

Problem Drinkers

19 Minutes

The film PROBLEM DRINKERS follows an alcoholic from the beginnings of moderate drinking into uncontrolled excess, and shows how he is slowly rehabilitated and ultimately recovers.

The Fight Game

18 Minutes

Few sports practiced in the U. S. have more vocal or more loyal supporters than has boxing. Despite criticism from the press and the public, "the game" has grown to a fourteen million dollar industry.
This film gives you glimpses of such past heroes as Gans, Nelson, Rickard, Dempsey, Tunney and Louis at the height of their greatness.

March of the Movies

20 Minutes

This Forum Film takes you through the early years of Pickford, Chaplin, William S. Hart, Theda Bara, Dressler, Valentino, Fairbanks, Garbo and Gilbert to the first talkies and Al Jolson's "Jazz Singer", to the triumphs of today's modern motion picture techniques.

The Rise and Fall of Nazi Germany

17 Minutes

This is background material for understanding the problems of peace in Europe today. Beginning with the Saar plebiscite in 1935, the film shows how, in carrying out his evil doctrines, Hitler led the Third Reich to domination over 15 countries.

Fashion Means Business

17 Minutes

Fifty million American women demand that their ever shifting tastes be satisfied, however little they can pay. Without denying the importance of the designers of haute couture such as Dior, Balmain, and Fath in Paris, and Charles James, Valentina, and Hattie Carnegie in New York, the film demonstrates the vast complexity of the fashion industry.

T-Men of the Treasury Dept.

18 Minutes

Tells the story of each of its six law enforcement agencies and shows its operatives in action. In an exciting sequence re-enacting the capture of a gang of moon-shiners, the film depicts the close cooperation that prevails between the various enforcement units. Here are the enemies of society pitting their wits against the T-Men, who with unceasing vigilance guard the treasury of the nation.

Public Relations

17 Minutes

A new profession has come into being. Good public relations have become of prime importance, not only in business, but also in Government, labor, in fact in any group that needs the public's understanding. This March of Time Forum Film brings to the public eye many of the leaders of this newest profession and highlights some of its history—how it began and where it stands today.

Search for Happiness

17 Minutes

Today millions of men and women in their search for happiness are turning to potions and pills, stars and cards, seers and quacks. With Americans spending untold millions a year in search of an answer, this film is a plea for saner living.

The White House

15 Minutes

For the past century and a half, the home of every President of the United States has been a late Georgian Mansion at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., known the world over as the "White House". Though the building is still essentially the one its designer, James Hoban, planned in 1792, many changes have been made during the past century and a half, particularly in the decoration and furnishing of the Executive Mansion, and today, the visitor to the White House finds a stately residence of great charm and dignity.

Indonesia, an Empire's problem

18 Minutes

Formerly known as THE DUTCH EMPIRE, this Forum Film recounts the drama of the struggle of the peoples of Indonesia for their independence from the mother country, Holland. With an economy based on her empire status, we see Holland at home, gallantly rebuilding and reclaiming her wartorn land while she struggles to settle the grave problems of her rich and widespread empire.

India

12 Minutes

Here is the complex story of India—of the predicament of the 400 million people, of their social political problems in this overcrowded land.

The Nation's Capital

15 Minutes

Government and sightseeing, the two main industries of Washington, D. C., are both included in this film. It shows the Capitol, White House, Senate Building, Lincoln Memorial and other famous buildings.

Turkey

17 Minutes

Turkey's location makes her a focal point in the structure of international affairs today. Her misfortune is that she is weak and power politics hangs over her as a dark and constant threat. She is a bridge between Europe and Asia, situated where the interests of strong nations converge and conflict.

The New France

19 Minutes

France today, as for many years past, is the political keystone of Western Europe. And as she struggles through the rehabilitation of her wrecked economy, the changes in her political structure and her thinking about the position she will hold between East and West, are of grave concern to the world.

Canada

11 Minutes

The oldest and greatest of the British Dominions, Canada—third largest trading nation in the world—stands economically and spiritually closer to the U. S. than any other nation. The future of this relationship requires a mutual understanding of viewpoints and problems.

Tomorrow's Mexico

17 Minutes

The film shows that as a result of its war production record Mexico is now in the midst of industrial expansion. However, even more important than the economic boom is the Mexicans' determination to throw off the bonds of ignorance and raise the standard of living.

South Africa

11 Minutes

Long known throughout the world for its fabulous wealth in gold and diamonds, its Zulus proud of their tribal glory, and its Boers and Britons, its rugged and challenging topography (all of which the film depicts), South Africa only recently emerged as a potential industrial power among nations.

Czechoslovakia

17 Minutes

Czechoslovakia declared itself an independent nation on October 28, 1918—surrendered that independence to a Moscow-controlled government on February 25, 1948. It was at the Versailles Peace Conference that the new republic was born, and its boundaries set.

Palestine

16 Minutes

Whether Palestine's gates are opened wide to Jewish refugees this year, or next, or not at all, Palestine is a film that will continue to command interest and attention while all nations strive to preserve world peace.

Life with Junior

18 Minutes

Today children are the object of more concentrated thought and concern than the young of any previous generation. Out of an increasing understanding of child psychology has come an awareness that children are real people, with individual personalities which must be encouraged and respected. With their new insight, American parents react to their offspring with alternating delight and consternation.

Life on the Modern Farm

17 Minutes

In the years following World War II, American farmers harvested the greatest crops in the nation's history. Under the impetus of a growing population and with the need to send foodstuffs abroad, millions of American farms became mechanized — a technological revolution which was to have an enormous influence on the farming population. The farmer was abandoning his old-fashioned way of gaining his living and was relying more and more on the machine to help him sow and reap his bumper crops.

Florida

A State of infinite variety, Florida is many things to many persons. To some it is history.

To almost everyone Florida means a vacation land: To sightseers: Palm Beach and Miami, and the Seminoles, The Cypress Gardens, Silver Springs and the Marine Studios.

New Hampshire

New Hampshire is a land of history—of contentment and charm. Here are quaint covered bridges, here are cities and towns older than our nation itself. Here are village greens and town meeting houses. And here, near Franklin, is the birthplace of America's great orator and statesman, Daniel Webster.

District of Columbia

The City of Washington is the heart and brain and the soul of our great nation. Here is carried on the business of our government. Government of the people, by the people, for the people—the important business of making effective the laws of our land as provided by our constitution.

California

California is extremely rich in natural wealth, possesses almost one-fourth of the nation's known oil reserves and is one of the leading agricultural states. Glimpses of Los Angeles, Hollywood, Mt. Whitney and Death Valley are a few of the interesting scenes.

Vermont

Vermont is predominantly a rural state—many fertile farms dotting the rolling countryside. Its beauty, its industry, and its people make it one of the foremost states in this land of ours.

Gold and Man

From the days of Cogliostro, the alchemist in Marie Antoinette's day, to the present, the transmutation of base metals to gold has absorbed the mind of man. Here is a brief history of the lure of gold and man.

Emperor Norton

The strange story of Emperor Norton, first and only Emperor of the United States, is a monument to human kindness. For 23 years he reigned in San Francisco and the friendly people catered to the gentle but unbalanced soul who regarded himself a king. It has become a part of our passing history.

Mark Twain

As Halley's Comet streaked across the skies in 1835 Samuel Clemens was born. 75 years later it appeared again and Sam Clemens, who became famous as Mark Twain, passed away. Mark Twain has added to the rich literature of our nation, creating a new folklore out of our frontier life.

Lafayette, Champion of Liberty

Our struggle for freedom in 1777 attracted a young aristocrat from France who added a brilliant chapter to our history. Young Marquis de Lafayette offered his fortune and services to George Washington and, to the end of his life, fought for liberty.

Silver Threads

The story of the young composer of "Silver Threads Among The Gold" — unknown Hart P. Danks is a tragic one. The song which brought him immortality caused him pain and poverty to the end of his days.

Little Jack Horner

In the reign of Henry VIII of England in 1536, messenger Jack Horner bore gifts from his Abbott to Henry. But on the way Jack Horner took what was not his, and acquired a plum which to this day has remained in his family's name.

Fifty Year Barter

In 1865 President Lincoln commissioned Secretary of State Wm. H. Seward to purchase the Virgin Islands, but the Danes proved to be better "horse traders". For 50 years they held out, until in 1917 we acquired the Islands which are now strategically important.

Star Gazers

One of the first star gazers was Galileo Galilei of Florence, Italy. From his observations and theories stems our modern astronomy. He was tried for his theory of the revolution of planets about the sun, but time and truth confirmed his convictions. Galileo lived far longer than his judges.
